I DOCTORAL WORKSHOP ON CULTURAL HERITAGE

From 21st to 24th of November 2018

PhDay Winter School

DESCRIPTION

Universidad Complutense de Madrid organizes, the 1st PhD Workshop in the framework of the UNA Europa University Alliance, founded by Freie Universitat Berlin, Alma Mater Studiorum - Universita di Bologna, Uniwersytet Jagielloński w Krakowie, KU Leuven, Universidad Complutense de Madrid and Universite Paris 1 Pantheon-Sorbonne.

Among the priority actions of UNA Europa is the promotion of the exchange between PhD students, PhD Doctorate Schools and researchers in the six member universities.

The PhD Workshop on Cultural Heritage offers the possibility to PhD students from all disciplines, preparing a thesis on various themes related to Cultural heritage to exchange on their PhD topics, methodologies, theories and approaches.

The PhD Workshop offers a mix of in-room presentations, methodology sessions, lectures and field trips. It is open to all PhD students working on theory of heritage (both tangible and intangible), heritage preservation and conservation, heritage interpretation, heritage and society, issues of heritagization, etc.

Though the focus is on cultural heritage, the workshop aims at exploring the limits of natural and cultural heritage.

We call papers about these main topics:

- University Heritage
- Museology and Museography
- Heritage Conservation and Restoration
- Bibliographic heritage
- Cultural Tourism

Objectives

Among the objectives of the member universities of UNA Europa is to promote mobility and the exchange of students and professors. In line with this strategic objective, a first meeting of PhD students from the six participating universities is proposed.
