

Citizenship. Questions and Historiography
Joint meeting of Board, Contemporary European History and PhD School of Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne
Central European University (CEU), Budapest
(19-21 June, 2015)

19 June, Friday

Arrival

19.00: evening event, wine tasting

20 June, Saturday

10.00-13.00: Board meeting

13.00-14.00: lunch time

14-18.00: PhD workshop

Presentations:

- Barna Szamosi (CEU): The Re-emergence of Racial Thinking in the Hungarian Medical Genetic Discourse
- Edit Jeges (CEU): Intimacy in Holocaust testimony
- Tamas Baranyi (ELTE): New Challenges to a New Concept of Statehood: Citizenship and Multiple Loyalties in Socialist Hungary, 1945–1967
- Mathieu Ferradou (Paris 1 / IHMC): Irish patriots in Paris under the early French Republic: the boundaries of citizenship
- Alexandre Saintin (Paris 1 / Centre d'histoire sociale du XXe siècle): French intellectuals and the dilution of the autonomy of the individual: travels in fascist Italy and nazi Germany
- Mathieu Gotteland (Paris 1 / SIRICE): Citizenship in a Colonial Context: The Examples of Germany and Austria-Hungary in China
- Serge Ollivier (Paris 1 / CRALMI / Mondes Américains): Question urbaine et « régime de citoyenneté » en Amérique latine, vers une histoire du temps présent
- Nathaniel Tang (Paris 1 / IHMC): Being a polish citizen in the first half of the 19th century

18.00-19.00: walk at the Liberty square

21 June, Sunday

Sightseeing tour